

Self and Peer Evaluation Podcast Assignment

FIRST: With regard to yourself and to each of your group members, ask yourself:

- Did I/my group member make an equal contribution to the project?
- Did I/my group member fulfill assigned responsibilities reliably and on time?
- Was I/my group member helpful and encouraging to other group members?

THEN: Considering your answers to the above questions, write the name and role of each group member in the blanks and mark your assessment of their contribution by placing an “X” in the appropriate box.

Myself: _____ Role: _____

I was a reliable and encouraging group member and my contribution was compelling and engaging.	I was a reliable group member and my contribution was competent but could have been better planned or executed.	I was a mostly reliable group member and my contribution met minimum requirements.	I was an unreliable group member and my contribution did not meet minimum requirements.	I failed to participate or was disruptive to the project’s success.

Additional comments (optional):

Group Member: _____ Role: _____

Student was a reliable and encouraging group member and their contribution was compelling and engaging.	Student was a reliable group member and their contribution was competent but could have been better planned or executed.	Student was a mostly reliable group member and their contribution met minimum requirements.	Student was an unreliable group member and their contribution did not meet minimum requirements.	Student failed to participate or was disruptive to the project’s success.

Additional comments (optional):

Group Member: _____ Role: _____

Student was a reliable and encouraging group member and their contribution was compelling and engaging.	Student was a reliable group member and their contribution was competent but could have been better planned or executed.	Student was a mostly reliable group member and their contribution met minimum requirements.	Student was an unreliable group member and their contribution did not meet minimum requirements.	Student failed to participate or was disruptive to the project’s success.

Additional comments (optional):